Class Prophecy — Class '63

The huge jetliner rose into the air and we heard the voice of our captain, BRUCE NELSON, "ANDREA COULD and LARRY OFTEDAHL, famous world travelers, are sponsoring a world tour in connection with SZUSZITZKY Airlines."

As I glanced around the cabin of the plane I spotted many famous faces. JERRY COLLINS and JAN HENDERSON, co-stars of "The Return of Cleo," were engaged in conversation with ROBERT MONICO, television's newest cowboy idol. Sitting across from him were his secretaries, BETTY WEISS and BEVERLY BELLANGER. Also on board were two imminent psychologists, MARY CASE and PAUL MATTSON.

Presently, our stewardesses, PAT SAFRATOWICH and KAREN SLOAN announced our arrival in Hawaii. There we were met by the members of the Millionaires Club. JERRY SIEGFORD, WAYNE KIVI, MARVIN BROWN, JOHN HOCKETT, BILL WEEKS, DOUG CHENEY, VIVIAN LIDEN, and their exclusive secretary, DIANE WRIGHT. They escorted us to the home of JEFF WILSON, owner of the horse that won the Kentucky Derby so many times it bought itself a string of people.

After a good night's rest we all took a tour through the brewery of SHUCKHART and Sons, world famous makers of distilled coconut juice. From there we went to see the "Hula dancers of Wiki Waki" at the Copabanana, owned by JACQUE WARD and BEVERLY EDELMAN. The star of the show, "Hula HEINZEN," put CARLA DAHL, MARLYS BURNHAM, BONNY SHEARER, and DARLA ROGERS through their paces. In the sidelines I noticed CAROL BREEZEE, a well known physical therapist, who traveled with the dancers.

Our next stop was Cuba, where DAN KOCK, head of the Cuban government, took us to a basketball game. The home tea, the Cuban Crackpots, was coached by FRED DIERKS and the cheers were led by CAROL JORGENSON, national Cuban cheerleader.

As we went on the journey to various countries we met numerous other people. In Africa we encountered TERRY ELLIS, who was selling .303's to the headhunters. Later we went on a safari led by the Great White Hunters, DICK DONOVAN and DAVID BURNS.

While in Brazil, FAUSTO GODOY, President of BRAZIL, gave us a tour through the May Clinic, named after the famous MAY brothers, LARRY and GARY. Doctor TOM "Dooley" ROSE and Doctor LEONARD ZILKA, heads of the hospital, and their team of skilled nurses, JANICE DUNCANSON, PAT ZACZKOWSKI, DOROTHY PAPE, ROSALIE HENDERSON, and JEANNETTE JENSEN were performing a delicate operation on a navel orange so we didn't stop to chat.

LINDA FORCE, Krushchev's personal doctor, gave us honorary citizenship because ever since she gave Mr. K. a shot of democracy he has been pro-western. As we passed through Siberia we met STEVE CHRISTLIEB, head of the U.S.S.W. (United Soviet Saltmine Workers), and his crew, consisting of CHARLES CRIST, ROGER WEAVER, DAVID SHARP, MARTIN JENSEN, DUANE TERHARK, and GEROLD STERNBERG.

As we passed through Finland we took dancing lessons at the WERMERSKIRCHEN dancing studio in Helsiulei. Her interpreter, HELEN NIEMINEN was on hand. Later, we relaxed in a sauna owned by LORRAINE HARVALA and PAT KANGAS.

At our stop in Barneo we were greeted by a superb marching band directed by TOM CARY. The band consisted of TRACEY LANG, CONRAD MACK, BLAINE ZELLER, and TOM YAGER.

Our stay in Paris was a lovely one, for we took in a style show which featured the latest creations of KAY PIKE. After the review we spoke with SHERRIE SITTIG, one of the models, and her personal hair stylist, JEANETTE SCHMITZ. Later we went to a Paris art exhibit showing paintings done by KAY KUEBER, DONNA LAMB, JUDY PEABODY, and EUGENE BRUMBAUGH. We were then invited to join a group of beat artists in an expresso house, where we were entertained by ENID SANFORD, who read poetry, accompanied by MARI HEWITT on her flute.

On our last night in France we were entertained in the home of RICK BOYER, the famous film producer. That night we stayed at the Houston Hotel, one of a chain of hotels owned by CHARLES HOUSTON.

While in Arabia we were guests of DOROTHY RESCH, one of the sultan's wives. We also rented some of SUSAN BEDFORD'S three-humped camels, which were trained by BILL ISAACSON.

In Japan we had the honor of bathing in JUDY LANGGUTH'S community baths, run by WAYNE PIKE.

MERLE MEISNER and KEITH TERHARK, who headed a geisha girl house, invited us to visit their establishment.

JEANNE MALM took us on a tour through her Japanese orphanage and everyone left with a child. Later we turned them over to RICK COCHRAN who organized them into a football team.

In Germany we were given the honor of viewing the joint invention of DENNIS HAMMES and TOM BENSON, which appeared to be a mechanical stale joke teller. Then we visited the Black Forest, where we met the chief coo-coo clock maker, ROGER HOLMER. He then showed us his factory, where ELLIOT ANNETTE, DAVE CRANDALL, RICHARD SCHAUER, BERNARD LARSON, DAVID STEARNS, and JOHN NELSON were making coo-coos.

At Oxford University in England we had the pleasure of sitting in on one of Professor FRED HOFER'S math classes, and one of Professor GARY HUBBEL'S World History lectures.

In Italy we ate at the LABONTE Pizza Palace, where DAVE CRISTLIEB, DUANE KUEBER, and KEN PARSONS were dicing onions The official tear wiper, KAREN HARJU, was at the moment wringing out her crying towel.

During our visit in Spain we attended a bull fight, in which RALPH McMILLEN fought off three female bulls.(?)

The Swiss welcomed us when they found out we were friends of the world renowned yodeler JOHN HEINZEN. Then we joined the mountain climbing team of JOAN PETERSON, DAVID SITZ, ARCELIA KNIGHT, GEORGINE PACHEL, and JEANNETTE PETERKA.

In India we viewed the rebuilding of the Taj Mahal, under the instructions of JEROME CHRISTENSEN.

Our final stop was in Alaska where we met JOE RESSLER, who was selling refrigerators to the Eskimos.

This prophecy may not be an accurate picture of the future, but you may be sure that the class of '63 will be the best ever.
